APPENDIX

REPORT OF BOARD OF EDUCATION

From the reports from our schools we show the following facts as being worthy of special mention. We rejoice in the great success already achieved by Emory University at Atlanta Ga. there having been enrolled during the year 1916-1917 134 students in the school of theology, not counting those enrolled in the summer school, and we heartily commend this school to the favorable consideration of our young ministers and would urge them to avail themselves of its advantages.

We are gratified to note the growth and increased usefulness of our Correspondence school and would urge all of our undergraduates in the Conference Course of study, as far as is practicable, to avail themselves of its services in their preparation for the work of the ministry.

We are much gratified with the fine success that has been achieved in the campaign to raise funds to erect another dormitory and increase the endowment for Greensboro College for Women, and heartily commend this worthy enterprise to the favorable consideration of all our people.

We heartily endorse the movement to erect a Memorial Hall at Rutherford College in memory of the late Dr. James H. Weaver, and would urge all of our pastors to co-operate in bringing this matter before our people so that they may have opportunity to contribute to this worthy cause, and have part in the perpetuation of the memory of one of our greatest and best loved ministers. The president of Trinity College reports that practically every member of the Senior Class, who could, or ought to go, went into service at the call of the country, in keeping with the traditions of this honored institution for patriotic devotion to duty.

We hereby record our thanks to Mr. B. N. Duke, for the contribution of $5,000 for the purpose of establishing the John McTyiere Flowers Lectureship in Christian citizenship.

All of our Conference schools are in good condition and rendering a fine service both to the church and state and are worthy of the loyal support of our people, and we would urge that they give them their patronage and such financial aid as they may be able.

The annual assessment of the General Board is $4,056. We recommend for the coming year an assessment of $16,000 for the school work of our Conference, and $800 for the Sustentation Fund, these amounts being the same as last year.

The amounts raised on assessment for our Conference schools shall be appropriated as follows:

To support the chair of Biblical Literature at Trinity College, $2,500. Of the sum remaining there shall be paid on a pro rata basis as follows:

Greensboro College for Women	3125
Davenport College	3125
Rutherford College	3125
Weaver College	3125
Jefferson School	1000

We request the General Board to appropriate at least $5,000 to schools within our Conference, and that the same be equally divided between Weaver College and Rutherford College, and such other sums as they may deem wise.

Recommendations for Appointments

H. H. Jordan, Conference Educational Secretary without salary; Rev. S. B. Turrentine as President, W. M. Curtis as Secretary and Treasurer and Frank Siler as Financial agent of Greensboro College for Women; J. B. Craven as President and E. J. Harbison Professor in Davenport College; Rev J. R. Walker, Professor and agent and W. T. Usry Professor in Rutherford College; Rev. Eugene Blake President of Weaver College; J. A. Baldwin President Southern Industrial Institute; Rev. W. L. Scott, Principal Jefferson School; Rev. John A. Lesh, Professor State Normal at Greensboro; Rev. P. T. Durham, Dean of Candler School of Theology; B. C. Reavis and T. F. Higgins Students in Trinity College; E. K. Creel Student at State University.

We believe that it is our Christian duty to aid our Brother in Black. It is time that Southern Methodism should do something for the Colored Methodist Episcopal Church on a scale worthy of our great Church. We therefore memorialize the General Conference to make a larger provision for this important cause, according to any plan that it may determine.

The treasurer of this Board is hereby instructed not to pay any of the above appropriations until the treasurer of each school or college shall have presented to this Board an audit of its accounts by a competent auditor.

From the reports of the schools we gather the following statistics.

	Value of Plant	Endowment	Teachers	Scholars

We wish especially to commend the very fine work being done at Brevard Industrial Institute.

Growing Needs of Our Schools

The time has come when our schools must have more adequate equipment for the work they are intended to do, and we would earnestly urge that our educational assessment be raised in full at least this coming year. And that the attention be called to the needs of our schools to the end that our people be made to appreciate the imperative necessity for strengthening our educational institutions in order to supply the places made vacant by reason of the withdrawal of such a large number of our best trained men for the service of our country at this critical time.

(Signed)

H. H. JORDAN, Chairman,
G. T. ROWE, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS

Communications from the Secretaries of the General Board of Missions indicate that the cause of Missions in the Church is making marked progress. It is stated that the income for the first six months of 1917 was forty per cent greater than for the same period last year. The significance of this appears in the fact that the saving in interest alone was sufficient to support a married missionary.

Progress has been made not only in earlier collections but in increased contributions, and this in view of existing conditions caused by the war.

Missions in the Sunday Schools

By the law of our Church every Sunday School is a missionary society. Definite missionary study and work are to be done in all our Sunday Schools. The law requires that collections be taken and reported as coming from the Sunday School.

The Pastor

We cannot afford to lose the pastor out of the machinery of the Church in raising our collections. It is good to have and use all the methods and agencies authorized by our Church, but only as methods and agencies under the direction and leadership of the pastor. Missionary committees and missionary secretaries must not supplant the pastor as the leader of the forces. His position of opportunity and responsibility has been recognized recently by our government in the effort to conserve food supplies and in almost every other undertaking at this critical time in our history. The pastor is the key man.

Increased Salaries

Unusually large demands are being made on your Conference Board of Missions on account of the great advance in the cost of living. Many of our preachers will suffer for the necessities of life unless larger provision is made for them. In some instances the charges can be induced to make an advance in the salary. But in some cases the larger provision must be made through your Board. Therefore, we urge our preachers and laymen to co-operate in an effort to raise sufficient funds to enable the Board to meet the pressing needs.

The Missionary Centenary

We call attention to the fact that in 1919 American Methodism comes to the end of its first century of organized missionary effort. The General Board of Missions has adopted a comprehensive Church-wide plan for the celebration of this notable event. It is designed to carry the lessons and appeals of the Centenary into every Church, and as far as may be, to every individual member.

We hereby pledge our co-operation as a conference in this undertaking.

War Relief Fund

It has been brought to our attention that there is urgent need for a special war relief fund to make it possible for our Board of Missions to come to the relief of our missionaries on its foreign fields in this serious situation caused by the decrease of the purchasing power of the salaries and the increase of the prices of the necessities of living. We urge that offerings be taken and the amounts raised be sent to the Treasurer of the Board.

Army Camp Work

Your Board has under advisement the matter of a Representative to follow our soldiers into the Army camps with the view of conserving our present membership and also to aid in the spiritual development of our non professing men. The call is urgent and needy, and your Board has tried conscientiously to supply this call and hence applied to the Y. M. C. A. headquarters for instructions, but there seems to be some confusion as to the duties demanded, and, as upon the character of the duties to be performed there will depend somewhat the type of man to be used, it appears that the end could best be served for the present by voluntary short term services. And your Executive Committee was instructed to supply the need by calling upon those churches whose pastors might in the judgement of the Executive Committee be suitable for the work and by this temporary supply meet the present demand; to study the case and select a man whose talents might fit the place to be filled.

Your Board would, therefore, ask the Conference for its endorsement of this plan, so that when we appeal to any one of our congregations for the loan of its pastor, that it may carry with that request the weight of the Conference approval. And in order that there may be no embarrassment to the Board in securing the services of a man if they should decide after due effort that they have such a one, that they shall apply to the Bishop in charge with the request that he release said man from his appointment in order that he may answer to the call of the Conference through the Board. The salary and expense of such man to be paid out of the Army Camp Fund that the Conference has authorized.

State University

The North Carolina Conference through its Board of Missions has requested the Western North Carolina Conference to join in providing a sufficient salary to command a strong man for its Church at Chapel Hill. Your Board recommends that we comply with the request, and appropriate $600 to this work. This to be administered by the Home Department of the General Board.

Your Board wishes to record appreciation of the great work being done in this Conference by the Woman's Missionary Society, and urges co-operation on the part of the Pastors in this work.

Missionary Debate

We approve the plan submitted to the Board by Dr. W. R. Ware to inaugurate missionary debates among the young people of our Conference, under the direction of the following: Rev. L. D. Thompson, Rev. J. W. Moore, and Dr. W. R. Ware.

Conference Secretary and Lay Leader

Rev. W. H. Willis is nominated for Conference Missionary Secretary, and Chas. H. Ireland is nominated Conference Lay Leader.

The assessments for the ensuing year are as follows:

Foreign Missions $21,850, Home and Conference Missions $28,800. (Home Missions $6,832 Conference Missions $22,068). The appropriations for the year 1917-1918 are as follows:

The applications for aid from the Duke fund were examined and passed upon in open board meeting and will be forwarded at once to Dr. McMurry of the General Board at Louisville, Ky.

The increase of nearly $1200 paid on assessments is gratifying and indicates that the gift of Mr. Duke has stimulated both our preachers and people. It is also a tribute to the worth and energy of the Corresponding Secretary of the Parent board. In the eleven years that he has been secretary the contributions of the Western North Carolina Conference have increased from an assessment of $5,300 of which $4,770 was paid, to an annual assessment of $13,310 of which, as already noted, $10,537 was paid. While the record is not one that offers an occasion for boasting, yet we are making gratifying progress.

REPORT OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD

The Sunday School Board most respectfully requests Bishop Atkins to re-appoint the Rev. J. Walter Long to the office he has held for several years, Secretary of the North Carolina State Sunday School Association.

The Board requests that the Secretary of the Conference be instructed again this year to print in the Journal a Directory of all our Sunday School Superintendents, similar to the one printed last year.

The Board is glad to announce again that it will continue next year its past policy of furnishing programs for Children's Day free of charge to each Sunday School that will observe the day and agree to send in the collection taken at that time to the Treasurer of this Board.

An especially urgent appeal for Armenian and Syrian relief has come to us from the General Sunday School Board. This Board therefore requests each Sunday School in the Conference to take a special "Christmas Collection" for Armenian and Syrian relief and send it directly to Dr. E. B. Chappell, Treasurer, 810 Broadway, Nashville, Tenn.

Last year Bishop Kilgo appointed the Rev. W. R. Shelton to the office of Field Secretary for Sunday School work in our Conference. He began the work immediately and continued it until the fifteenth of May. Then he felt so keenly the call of his country for patriotic service that he entered the army at camp Fort Oglethorpe. He is now a Lieutenant stationed at Camp Jackson, but soon, he thinks, to go to France. In the midst of the manifold duties in his camp, he stopped long enough last week to write a letter of greeting to the Board and for the members of the Conference expressing the deepest solicitude for the continuance of the work he began in our Conference. The value of his work has been made manifest in increased contributions, quickened interest in Teacher Training, and in the larger number of organized and enrolled classes.

The Board greatly desires to continue the office of the Field Secretary. It therefore asks the Conference to continue again next year, as this year, an assessment on each charge of an amount equal to one per cent of the pastor's salary, and to request the Joint Board of Finance to report that item to the Presiding Elders of the various Districts in order that the District Stewards may lay the assessment on each charge. The Board recommends that each Sunday School raise the amount of this assessment on the local church, and requests that it be sent, as early as possible in the new year, to the Treasurer of this Board.

If the Conference will adopt this one per cent assessment, the Board will place in the field Prof. Oscar V. Woosley, now of Lexington, N. C. However, until the middle of May, he will be able to do only office work and occasional week-end institute-work. After the middle of May he will give his whole time and whole heart to the work. The members of the Board are jubilant over the fact that so capable a man as Prof. Woosley can, if we decide right now, be secured for, what we trust will be, continuous service in our Conference.

EPWORTH LEAGUE REPORT

The Epworth League grew out of the necessity for more careful training of the young life of their church for definite Christian service. The twenty-seven years of its history have abundantly justified its right to a large place in the thought, plan and effort of our Methodism.

It has grown from a modest unnoticed beginning until now it is a mighty right arm of strength in almost every place where it has had a fair chance in any local church. If it has failed it has usually been due to the fact that it has not had the wise enthusiastic support of the pastor and because the Church has failed to see the magnificent opportunities which it affords for helping its young life.

The League has a distinct place in Methodist polity. It has done and is doing a work that has not been done by any other organization in the church. It is emphatically a working organization, while the Sunday school including the organized class, is primarily and essentially a School. In the one we learn while in the other we learn to do. The function of the Sunday School is to teach but the function of the Leagues is to furnish opportunity for high practical and holy endeavor.

Therefore, in the words of our General Secretary, "The argument that the organized Sunday School class is now meeting the requirements for such organizations is not valid, for the Leagues are most prosperous where there are also well organized modern Sunday Schools."

In view of the foregoing be it resolved:

First, That Anniversary Day be observed in all our League Chapters and that half of the collection taken on that day be forwarded to carry on connectional League work.

Second, That, while we rejoice in all the work being done for our young people by the various church agencies we nevertheless, thoroughly commit ourselves as a Conference to the Epworth League and that we throw ourselves heartily into the effort to make "The Big Drive" of the next five months an unqualified success so that one or more Chapters shall be organized in every pastoral charge in our Conference.

Third, That we again endorse our great League Organ, "The Era" and pledge ourselves to do whatever we may on "Era Night", January 12, 1918 to put this excellent magazine into every home where there is an Epworthian.

Fourth, That we rejoice in the splendid annual Epworth League Conference held in July of this year in this city and that we promise the Conference officers our hearty support in the effort to make the forth-coming Conference in Charlotte the very best that has been held within our bounds. At the same time we would call attention to the Junaluska Assembly which convenes at Lake Junaluska July 14-21, 1918 and we urge our pastors and young people to attend.

Fifth, That, in view of the unprecedented conditions in this country brought about by the world war, we give ourselves to the careful study of the very comprehensive program for war-work which is to be undertaken by the Epworth Leagues throughout the nation, an outline of which is to support in the January number of the "Era."

Sixth, That the Epworth League be given its rightful place among the other great interests of the Church by providing an Epworth League Anniversary at our Annual Conference from time to time.

(Signed) W. E. POOVEY, Chairman
 J. FRANK ARMSTRONG Secretary

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BOOKS AND PERIODICALS

We are glad for the good reports from our General Organ and our Conference Organ which have been before your Committee on Books and Periodicals, and which have been carefully considered. We would, first of all, commend most warmly the good work done by all our editors, and we would give them hearty assurances of our high appreciation of the excellent literature sent out by them through our Conference and General Organs, our Epworth Era, our Sunday School literature, and our Review. These are all worthy of our enthusiastic endorsement. The living truths that travel through these various lines of literature into the minds and hearts and lives of our people build us up in our most holy faith, bind us together in our interests and activities, and bless us in a thousand ways. Without them we could not live and move and have our being as a great, growing Church.

We regret to learn, however, from the report of Dr. Ivey that the circulation of our Nashville Christian Advocate is not growing and that its income is not sufficient to pay for itself. And all this is because the paper is left to circulate for itself—a thing which no paper can do. We feel that our General Organ has a supreme claim upon us that it deserves better things from our hearts and hands both as to our personal patronage and as to earnest endeavors to extend its circulation. We could do better and we should do better, and we will do better when we determine to do our whole duty by this our leading church paper. Our General Organ should be circulated in our leading homes right along with our Conference Organ especially when we can secure the two for only three dollars. If this were done as it should be done, our people would grow and increase rapidly in religious intelligence and in spiritual life and character. Our people should learn to give our religious papers their rightful place in our hearts and homes. Dr. Ivey well says in his report, "The mind and heart of the Church should be trained to recognize the primacy of the religious newspaper in the field of journalism, and on the strength of this primacy to give the religious newspaper unyielding loyalty and strong support." We believe that it would be well for our Church to come to the rescue of our religious periodicals by endowment, or by some other plan of support, so that they might reduce by one half their subscription price and double over and over again their subscription list. The literature which feeds the life of our Church should not be denied to any of our people, and especially not to our poor because they cannot pay the price. We would be glad to see our General Conference take wise and aggressive action in this momentous matter.

Your Committee has had under consideration also the report of the Board of Publication for our Conference Organ and we are gratified to learn that the managers have reached the goal for which they have been so earnestly striving, and that now at last our Advocate has its own home with its ample equipment, all free from debt, and that there has been a considerable increase in the circulation of the paper during the past year. We heartily commend our paper, which is so essential to the prosecution of our work as a Church, and we urge that we continue the effort to place it in every home in our Conference. We heartily endorse the recommendations of the Board, especially that part suggesting a campaign in February, 1918, fixing not less than 2,000 new subscribers as our minimum goal. We also urge that our pastors secure the co-operation of the leading laymen of the Church and canvass every home in the congregation.

We endorse the nomination of Rev. H. M. Blair as Editor and as General Manager of the Advocate and recommend his appointment to the same. We also endorse the nomination of Rev. W. L. Sherrill as Assistant Editor and recommend his appointment to this post. We endorse too the nomination of Mr. N. L. Eure for election as a member of the Board of Publication to fill the vacancy caused by the expiration of his term in said office.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION

The annual meeting of the Board of Publication was held at the Advocate office in Greensboro, on Thursday, November 8, 1917. Rev. H. M. Blair, Agent and Treasurer, submitted his report, including a complete inventory, an itemized statement of receipts and disbursements, and a full financial statement, showing resources and liabilities as appeared November 1, 1917.

The Board was delighted to find that this report shows our building and plant entirely free from debt and our business in an altogether satisfactory and prosperous condition.

We have added about 1,700 new subscribers to the list this year, many pastors have given loyal co-operation in the effort to secure the pledge of two thousand. Three districts, viz, Asheville, Mount Airy, and Statesville, have secured the full allotment, and more, while the Salisbury District lacks but a few of having secured the full allotment. This is the first time in the history of our repeated campaigns that a district has been reported up in full with this obligation.

Notwithstanding the large number of new subscribers secured, the net increase in our circulation is not large—only about 600. This is accounted for by the stricter methods which require the cutting off of many delinquents.

The financial statement showing the condition of business, November 1, 1917, is as follows:

RESOURCES

Office Building	$ 9629.75
Machinery and Fixtures	20554.80
Cash	802.34
Accounts Receivable	1158.15
Paper Stock, Stationery, etc.	2061.90
Subscription List, est.	4000.00
	<hr/> $38206.94

LIABILITIES

Investment	$18404.96
Accts. Payable	69.95
Surplus	17947.92
Net Earnings for the year	1784.11

While the Conference failed by about 300 of making good the pledge of 2,000 new subscribers, the Board has decided to make the effort to tide over without advancing the price of the paper to $2.00 per year. We are convinced, however, that in order to do this we must have 2,000 new subscribers early in the year. We will therefore ask the Conference to renew its pledge of 2,000 new subscribers to be secured during February, making February Advocate month. In view of this, the Board proposes to bring out the first week in February a Publisher's Special with somewhat elaborate features, laying before the people a full discussion of the question of religious literature and the place of the church paper in the church and home. A large number of extras will be printed in order to assist the pastors by giving emphasis to the campaign. If the pastors will give us thorough co-operation we are convinced that the momentum of this campaign will give us far more than the minimum of 2,000.

We again urge that our people throughout the Conference turn their patronage as far as possible into our Job Department. Also that book orders be sent to our agent when possible to do so. The Board is convinced that they have no more important mission than to do all possible to distribute good books among our people.

The report of our Agent and Treasurer shows not only all debts canceled, but a small sum on hand as the nucleus of an endowment fund. Two of our oldest superannuates last year made voluntary contributions to this fund; besides, there are several smaller contributions from persons who have become interested in the cause. We trust that another year will witness a good increase in this fund, and that we may soon have an endowment of at least $50,000.00, which would secure sufficient income to take care of the editor's salary, and more.

It is the opinion of this Board that the educational effect of our building enterprise has been worth all the cost, and more. It has served to keep the question of our church paper before the people in a way that has awakened wide-spread interest and has served to fix in the minds of the people as nothing else could the fact that the paper is an institution of the Church. It is interesting to note that there are more than five hundred contributions ranging from twenty-five cents to $1,000.00. It occurs to us, therefore, that a continuation of this campaign with the view of securing an endowment would be eminently wise, not only because we need the strength which it would give, but because of the educational value of such a campaign.

It is with great pleasure that we announce the appropriation of $500.00 out of the earnings for the present year to be distributed among the Conference Claimants, and we sincerely hope that the generous patronage of our people will make it possible for us to continue this from year to year.

The Board nominates Rev. H. M. Blair as editor for the ensuing year, and recommends that the Conference confirm the same, and that the Bishop be requested to appoint him to this work, also that Rev. W. L. Sherrill be appointed as Assistant Editor.

We also nominate Mr. N. L. Eure for election as a member of this Board to fill the vacancy caused by the expiration of his term.

Rev. H. M. Blair has been elected Agent and Treasurer of the Board also General Manager of the business.

REPORT OF TRUSTEES OF CHILDREN'S HOME

The Trustees of the Children's Home are able to report that the good people and preachers of our Conference have kept the needs of our orphan children faithfully in mind during the Conference year just closing. Although the calls made necessary by the prosecution of the war have been many, necessary and urgent, yet the Conference has cared for her orphans and has provided for their needs.

It is the intention of your Board that the Children's Home shall assume the character of a well conducted and efficient Industrial School, and the Superintendent is laboring to develop the Home along these lines just as rapidly as possible. We are glad to be able to report progress.

The orphan child must take his place in the world, must earn his living, and will receive consideration without regard to the circumstances of his bringing up. It is, therefore, the more important that his training be rigid enough that he may not falter or fail when he comes to take his place as a self supporting citizen in the larger life outside.

The Trustees have, therefore, instructed the Superintendent that he develop, as rapidly as possible, a definite course of literary training; and, hand in hand with this, a similarly definite course of industrial training; and that every child, hereafter, shall complete the work along both lines as nearly as may be possible.

It is the judgment of the Trustees that the Home exists for the good of the children. Acting on this principle, children who are admitted to the Institution will, hereafter, be expected to take the training outlined above, before being discharged from the Institution. Any exception to this rule shall be by order of the Executive Committee.

This matter is mentioned in this report because we feel that it is no part of the duty of the Church to care for orphan children until such time as they become large enough to become burden-bearers for those who were unwilling to help them in their earlier helplessness.

During the year, the Gray Building, and the Hanes Building have been comple'ed, and quite a good deal of work has been done in the development of the grounds and the farm. Crops have been good, and the home has "much goods," in the way of farm products laid up for the winter. We feel that the Home is trying, in every way, to help itself, and we commend it to the brethern, on this account, for their aid.

The Superintendent called to the attention of the Board instances where voluntary contributions to the Home have subsequently been used to make up the 10 per cent Assessment of the charge from which the contribution came. It is clear that this practice makes the contribution, not a gift to the Home but, to the charge in which the contributor lives. The Trustees feel that this is unfair to the Home and to its friends. They believe that anybody has a right to make a gift to any benevolence of the Church, and that it is not within the right of anybody afterwards to direct that gift into another channel.

The Board recommends that the present plan of support be continued and that every encouragement be extended to the Fifth-Sunday collections, and other voluntary gifts to the Home.

By th terms of the will of the late Jacob Cicero Tise, of Winston-Salem, the Home is left $20,000 for the erection of a permanent building, preferably an Infirmary.

We nominate, N. R. Richardson, G. F. Ivey, T. F. Marr, J. K. Norjett, H. G. Chatham, J. P. Lucas, as Trustees to succeed themselves; E. L. Bain to succeed J. R. Scroggs, resigned; A. E. Smith to succeed L. T. Mann, resigned.

BIBLE CAUSE

Dr. M. B. Porter, Secretary of the South Atlantic Agency of the American Bible Society, has brought us a message on the general and special work of the Society. The general work has been hindered in some Mission fields, notably in Turkey, where before the war the Society was doing such splendid work. It has been necessary to curtail the general work in our own country, because of the great demand for special work among our armies and navy, and the soldiers of our Allies.

For this special work the Society is asking the Churches and friends to assist in raising $400,000 with which to put 1,000,000 Testaments in the hands of the soldiers. The Army Y. M. C. A. is to be the principle distributor of these Testaments. These are specially bound in Khahki for soldiers and Blue Cloth for sailors. Already 700,000 Testaments and portions have been printed and distributed since May 1, 1917, and by December 1st, it will have printed and distributed one million copies, but it is necessary to get another million ready and into the hands of our boys quickly, and the Church should respond to this proposition at once, and this should in no way interfere with the one per cent. assessment laid on our Conference for the general work of the Society. The American Bible Society is our agency for supplying the word of God to our own people and to other lands. So we should stand by it with our own money. and moral support.

The Committee on Bible Cause is undertaking to secure a deposit of Bibles in each District with a Secretary of the Committee to look after it and to represent the interest of the Bible Cause in the bounds of the District to see that every charge brings up it's part of the 1 per cent. assessment or makes an effort toward it. We request our Presiding Elders to look specially after this also.

We note with great pleasure that there has been an increase of more than twenty-five per cent in the collections over last year.

We regret that a large number of charges raise nothing for Bible Cause.

December 9 has been set apart by the Society as universal Bible Sunday through out the nation and the Society is urging a nationwide campaign to be made from December 1, to December 11, and the collection to be taken December 9, for this special war work. The Government gives the soldier a rifle, the Red Cross cares for his wounds, and we should supply him with the word of God.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE

Whereas, God has set apart one day out of seven to be observed as a day of rest and worship, and amid the thunders of Sinai commanded, "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy," and our Lord has seen fit to name only two kinds of work to be preformed on the Sabbath day, viz., works of necessity and works of mercy; and Christ and his apostles have shown the importance and value of the Sabbath, known as the Lord's day, by appointing this day to be observed perpetually as a day for the worship and service of God; and believing as we do, that almost all nations that have fallen into wreck and ruin, have become first Sabbath breaking nations; be it resolved therefore,

1. We regret and heartily condemn the increasing tendency to make the Sabbath a day of pleasure and recreation, instead of a day of worship and service to God in His Church.

2. We heartily commend the authorities in Charlotte for the righteous stand they took for the closed Sabbath in that City and commend their example to all people and cities every where.

3. That we urge pastors and people to co-operate with all movements and organizations that are working toward a more strict observance of the holy day.

4. That, as a religious body we disapprove and condemn many of the varieties of Sunday labor which cannot be shown as works of necessity or mercy.

5. That we urge our pastors and people to do their utmost to make this day what God intended it to be, viz., a day of prayer, scripture reading, worship, and service, for the uplift of humanity and the glory of God.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE

The temperance forces have made greater progress in the past twelve months than in any previous year. For all of which we thank God and take courage.

Just one year ago Congress enacted prohibition for our Capital, and Washington has been dry since the first of this month. Last spring legislation was secured to protect our soldier and sailor boys by making dry zones about every camp and forbidding the sale of liquors to any one in uniform. Other legislation enacted was the Jones Amendment to forbid the use of the mails for all liquor advertisement matter, and the Reed Amendment to prohibit the conveying of liquor for beverage purposes in any manner into dry territory.

As soon as the present Congress organized and began work on war measures, the Anti-Saloon League appeared and offered to lend a hand. To save food was the question. The League answered prohibit the waste of the hundred millions bushels of grain in the manufacture of liquor. The Lever Food Control Bill was accordingly amended. Under this, no distilled liquor can be manufactured and the President is empowered to regulate or prohibit the making of wine or beer.

The last General Assembly did not measure up to its opportunity or responsibility and refused to grant legislation which this Conference and many other church bodies had memorialized them for—legislation proposed by the Anti-Saloon League. The Legislature did, however, pass one act that helps much. That one made blockading a felony with a minimum punishment of twelve months in the State's prison.

All recent elections prove that the traffic in liquor is doomed. Last spring, three states, Utah, Indiana and New Hampshire by the act of their respective Legislatures went dry and on November 6th, New Mexico did the same. The result in Ohio, whatever that may be (the Anti-Saloon League has filed protest and the contest will follow) is a greater victory. Here in Cincinnati is the liquor dealers' headquarters. The state has large cities and many foreign born. Three years ago, the wets carried the state by 84,152 majority. Two years ago they carried it by 55,408. This time the report gives them only 1,700 majority, if they have that by an honest count.

The election in Wilmington and New Castle County, Delaware, puts the whole state on record on this wet and dry question and the dries have the majority vote of the state.

Surely the days of John Barleycorn are numbered.

In view of the above information and the present status, your Committee recommends that this Conference memorialize Congress:

1. To submit the constitutional amendment provided for in the Sheppard Resolution which passed the Senate August 1, 1917.
2. To provide the same protection for our soldier boys in France that they are given in our camps here.
3. That we elect Rev. H. M. Blair and Dr. T. A. Hathcock as members of the Board of Trustees of the North Carolina Anti-Saloon League for another year.

Your Committee further recommends that the Conference urge all Christian citizens to cooperate with Governor Bickett, the sheriffs of North Carolina and the Revenue Department in their efforts to suppress the blockading of liquor.

We want to call attention to the Convention of the Anti-Saloon League at Washington, D. C., December 10-13, 1917. Our Governor will head a delegation from this State, one hundred of whom he has commissioned, and we want to urge Churches, Sunday Schools and other bodies to elect delegates for this Convention to join the large delegation appointed by the Governor.

We commend the Anti-Saloon League for its efficiency, perseverance and success and bespeak for it the whole-hearted support of our Pastors and Churches.

We believe the unanimous re-election of the Superintendent for the eleventh year is proof of his wise and efficient administration.

We encourage the Sunday Schools in their study of the Temperance lessons as presented in our Sunday School lesson helps.

We condemn the furnishing of cigarettes to our soldiers by certain organizations and private agencies.

We discourage the use of tobacco in all forms by the membership and ministry of our Church.

We also condemn the growing evil of the sale and use of soft drinks.

We enjoin upon our people to be temperate in all things, and to avoid all needless self indulgence in order that their lives may be blameless before the world.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE SPIRITUAL STATE OF THE CHURCH

In view of the tragic calamity that has fallen upon our world; in view of the countless thousands of our stalwart sons and brothers, who may be called upon to pour out their lifeblood on the already blood-soaked soil of Europe; in view of the bereavements, that must be borne by loved ones who remain at home; it behooves the Church of the ever-living God to enter into a more intimate union and communion with the suffering Savior of men. At this hour of distressing disaster, when the faith of men is wavering and the enemies of the Church are declaring that God has deserted His world, the sons and the daughters of the Omniscient Father must put more implicit faith in His unerring leading. The Great Shepherd of the sheep now rules in the lives of men and nations, as in the days of old. And He yet promises ample provision, adequate protection and tender comfort to all who love and trust Him. God grant that we Christian Americans, as individuals and as a nation, may "commit our way unto the Lord and trust also in Him; and He shall bring it to pass."

In this crucial hour of world destitution; in this crying hour of world need; in this horrible hour of world suffering and death, will the Church of Christ meet the awful obligation that confronts it? In this momentous hour, when the whole world, regardless of color or creed, is rallying as one man to meet the bodily need of stricken humanity, the Church, bought by the shed-blood of the Son of God, must rally as one man in the effort to supply the sould need of the eternally dying world.

It seems that this cataclysmic castrophe, which has shaken the very foundations of our civic and religious institutions, would turn the minds of lost men to God and make the present a period of great in-gathering. But as a matter of fact the opposite seems to be true. The general testimony of all, who have conducted meetings during the year, is that it has been increasingly difficult to persuade sinners to forsake their sins and turn to Jesus Christ. Only 4208 members have been received into the Church on profession of faith this year, against 5917 last. Why this dearth of conversions at a time when opportunity ought to be ripe for reaching souls? Is God's arm shortened? Or is man's faith faint and his consecration luke-warm? If the Church of the Lord of the harvest fails in this fateful hour to fulfill its primary purpose of seeking and saving lost men, it will deserve the contempt of the world and the condemnation of God.

May we not go back and discover the underlying cause of our failure to win souls in the almost total elimination of family worship? During this conference session we have repeatedly been reminded of the hallowed influence of the old time family altar. Is family prayer a thing of the past? If this be true, we need go no further to determine why there has been a decrease in bringing men into the Kingdom of Righteousness. If this thing be true, we have the key to the meager attendance on our mid-week prayer service.

When we are told that 98 per cent of our Church members come from Christian homes, and 86 per cent from homes that hold family prayer, we begin to realize how vital this question is.

In view of the foregoing considerations your committee heartily recommends:

1. That meetings be held in every Church this year; that the revival fires be kindled early and be kept burning; and that whenever at all feasible the pastor hold his own meetings. Furthermore, your committee earnestly urges,

2. That every under-shepherd bring the lambs of the flock into the fold. There were 2903 accessions from our Sunday Schools during the year. If the average age of the conversion of our ministry and laity is fifteen; if only 4 per cent are converted after they reach the age of twenty-five; if not 5 per cent of any adult generation is saved, what a grave responsibility rests upon us as pastors of innocent, trusting, plastic childhood. If the future Kingdom of God is dependent upon our present activity with the young life of our Church, how reverently and passionately ought we to apply ourselves to this sacred task.

3. Finally your committee prayerfully appeals to all preachers and laymen, that they not only "search the scriptures daily" and "pray without ceasing," but also that they co-operate in establishing a family altar in every Methodist home.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CONFERENCE HOSPITAL

The proposition of the Western North Carolina Conference to establish a general hospital within its bounds in some community which should meet the requirements of the Conference and offer additional inducements, has been tentatively considered by responsible representatives of five or six cities, and three of these cities, Winston-Salem, Salisbury, and Greensboro, made propositions in writing to the Conference committee.

The Committee has been gratified at the response which the proposition has evoked, and especially with the increasing interest in the matter in the leading cities of the Conference. The Committee is greatly encouraged. An actual beginning might have been made in either of at least two places, if the Committee had been willing to waive its own conception of the finest possible foundation in site and means, and accept the splendid offers made. Believing, however, that it is best for the enterprise itself, for the supporting Conference, and for the city that shall be so fortunate ultimately as to secure this institution, that the greatest reasonable caution shall be used to secure the largest success finally, the Committee has been compelled, although with deep reluctance, to decline each and every offer made.

It should be said in fairness that the offers of Winston-Salem and Salisbury were very attractive. Salisbury's monetary guarantee, the Committee felt, was not adequate to meet the plain conditions of the Conference, although we recognize the high value of the real estate offered. Winston-Salem's offer of money exceeded the Conference's stipulation by over $10,000, but the Committee did not think the sites offered were desirable for the work we have in mind.

Greensboro's proposition to us, while having excellent points to commend it, did not meet our requirements.

The members of the Committee are thoroughly of the opinion that this Christly work should shortly succeed, and that it will.

We, therefore, recommend the continuance of the Committee to be composed of the following ministers and laymen: C. M. Pickens, C. W. Byrd, C. H. Ireland, J. W. Long, E. L. Bain, W. A. Lambeth, R. G. Tuttle, A. M. Whisnant, and W. H. Burton; and that the Committee be empowered under the restrictions named in Recommendations 1 and 2 of the Hospital Committee report of 1916, found on page 69 and 70 of the Conference Journal of last year, to continue their work, and, if opportunity offers, to proceed to select a site and erect and equip a hospital.

We further recommend that the aforesaid persons be constituted a Board of Trustees and that they be incorporated as such under the laws of North Carolina.

SUPERANNUATE ENDOWMENT FUND

The Committee on the Superannuate Endowment Fund, begs to submit its report as follows:

Conference Committee

1. The Annual Conference of 1916, at Gastonia, N. C., appointed a committee of laymen, consisting of J. A. Bell; E. A. Cole and J. B. Ivey, of Charlotte; M. D. Stockton, of Winston; J. W. Harris, of High Point; Dr. W. H. Nicholson, of Hickory; and Dr. W. C. Houston, of Concord, as a Committee, to present a plan to raise the sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000.00) as a nucleus or basis of a permanent endowment fund for our Conference Claimants.

The Plan Proposed

2. The plan proposed was, that, 100 laymen throughout this Conference territory, subscribe for, and carry to maturity, 10 shares each, or $1000.00, in Building and Loan stock—the pledge to be effective only when the 100 men had so agreed, and the fund to become productive at the maturity of the Building and Loan stock, in the usual course of about six years and three to four months—the idea being, that, to this fund, if successful, would be added other subscriptions, in greater or smaller amounts, as might be donated, under a like plan, to be organized and arranged in such a way as the Conference might thereafter determine and provide.

Appointment of District Committee

3. In addition to the appointment of the Conference Committee, above named, the Conference authorized and directed the Presiding Elders of the several Districts, to appoint a District Committee of three laymen to personally and actively present the plan to the laymen and friends of the cause throughout the District.

Action of Committee

4. Following the appointment by the Conference, the Committee met in Charlotte, and organized, and requested, the Presiding Elders to appoint and advise it of the personnel of the District Committees. The Committees then communicated with the District Committees, sending them full statement of the proposed plan and a copy of the pledge or undertaking which the Committee desired to put in business shape. The District Committees were requested to to organize and present and urge the cause in their respective territories. These letters were followed up by several subsequent communications, from time to time. The plan was also given publicity through the columns of the North Carolina Christian Advocate.

Result

5. The Committee regrets to report that it has failed to secure the necessary number of pledges to put its plan in operation. But in two Districts, where personal solicitations have been made, thirteen (13) signatures to the proposition have been secured, and in another the District Committee reports five (5) or more pledges or promises.

Recommendation

6. The experience of the Committee has convinced it that, however much the people may be interested in the cause, it is impossible to carry out the matter successfully by correspondence. It is necessary to present the cause in person. We are encouraged to hope that if this is done the people will respond, and the reproach and shame of the practical neglect and abandonment of our superannuates may be removed from the face of the Methodists of the Western North Carolina Conference; and to that end, the Committee begs to recommend that this Conference appoint an agent or canvasser to present to the laymen of the Conference the plan and cause of a permanent endowment for its claimants and superannuates. This recommendation is made by the Committee, with the understanding that the salary and expense of such agent be arranged by the Conference or secured by pledges from the several Districts, in a way satisfactory to the Presiding Bishop and officers of this Conference. Your Committee, fearing that the work might be retarded if the agent should be burdened with the additional duty of collecting such salary and expense account, has taken the liberty to suggest in this report the aggregate of $2500.00 to cover this account and has apportioned same among the eleven districts of the Conference as follows: Asheville, $250; Charlotte, $350; Greensboro, $300; Morganton, $180; Mt. Airy, $175; North Wilkesboro, $100; Salisbury, $250; Shelby, $200; Statesville, $260; Waynesville, $175; Winston, $250.

The Committee begs to recommend as such agent Rev. J. P. Rodgers to take up this work for next year.

WASHINGTON REPRESENTATIVE CHURCH

The Committee to which was referred the question of the best method of securing the balance due by this Conference on the subscription to the Washington City Representative Church, has carefully considered different methods and makes the following recommendation: That our Conference Board of Church Extension be, and is hereby, directed to levy, in the usual way, an assessment of two thousand dollars a year for the next two years, for the purpose of paying off this debt. This assessment to be known as "Church Extension Special." If at the end of these two years a sufficient amount has not been secured to pay in full the balance due, said Board of Church Extension shall make a third assessment sufficiently large to pay the balance.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MEMORIALS TO GENERAL CONFERENCE

There were five memorials handed to your Committee and one originated in the Committee as follows:

1. A memorial signed by C. H. Ireland, P. H. Williamson and others asking that the lay representation in the annual Conference be doubled, at least; and that Conference Lay Leaders and District Lay Leaders be made full members of the annual Conference.

We recommend concurrence as to increase of lay representation, and non concurrence as to lay leaders being members of the Annual Conference.

2. A memorial asking that the boundary between the Western North Carolina Conference and the North Carolina Conference be so changed as to transfer the town of Pelham to the Western North Carolina Conference. Signed by J. H. Barnhardt and W. R. Ware.

The Committee recommends concurrence.

3. A memorial asking for the removal of the time limit signed by R. M. Taylor, J. E. Gay and others.

The Committee recommends non concurrence.

4. A memorial originating in the Committee asking that paragraph 149 of the Discipline be changed to read as follows:

Who shall be admitted into full connection?

Par. 149. No one except a preacher who has been employed at least two years in the regular pastoral work of some station, or circuit, or mission, as preacher in charge or junior preacher (which is to commence from his admission on trial into the Annual Conference), and who is approved by the Annual Conference.

We recommend, non concurrence.

COMMITTEE ON CHURCH PROPERTY

The statistics show that there are 861 church buildings in our Conference. These buildings are valued at $3,015,646, an increase in valuation of $308,836. The number of parsonages is 208. The value of the parsonages is $542,387, an increase of $13,047.

On this property there is carried $976,412 insurance, an increase over last year of $65,604. The indebtedness on church property is $186,011, on parsonages $82,365. Total $268,376.

The loss of two splendid churches by fire during the year, one valued at $20,000 and the other at $5,500, with not a dollar of insurance on either, should speak volumes to our people of the need of protecting themselves against loss. While there is a substantial increase in interest along this line there are yet many churches and parsonages uninsured, and many others inadequately protected. We recommend our own Methodist Mutual Fire Insurance Company, of Statesville, N. C. We recommend the election of Dorman Thompson to succeed himself as director of this company, his term to expire in 1922.

We recommend that where new churches are enterprised, care should be used in selecting plans that will provide ample accomodations for doing effectively the work of the Sunday school. Also, that the matter of accoustics be given due consideration.

MEMOIRS

REV. E. M. HOYLE

Rev. Enoch Marvin Hoyle, son of Johnathan M. and Sarah R. Hoyle, was born in Cleveland County, N. C., August 25th, 1879 and died in Statesville,, July 3rd, 1917. He professed religion and joined the Methodist Church, August 1888, under the ministry of Rev. J. M. Lowder. He was educated in the public schools of his county, Belwood Institute, and Trinity College, graduating from th latter in 1904. Before entering Trinity College he taught school one year at Iron Station; where he made lasting friends with patrons and pupils. At Belwood Institute he was active in religious work among his fellow students and while there felt the call to preach. A little later during the administration of the writer of this sketch he was licensed to preach by the Shelby District Conference held at Bessemer City in 1899. His father and mother spared neither money nor themselves to prepare him for the work to which God had called him.

While at Trnity College he was pastor of Pearl Cotton Mills and Bethany and Mangum Street Church, during this time he also held a special meeting at Eno Cotton Mills near Hillsboro, resulting in the organization and building of a Methodist Church.

Bro. Hoyle joined the North Carolina Conference at Henderson, December 1904; and was appointed to Mangum Street, Durham, where he served for three years, most acceptably. From Mangum Street he was sent to Lumberton, where he remained four years; then to Greenville, one year and a half, coming to the Western North Carolina Conference at this time in the interest of his wife's health. He was transferred at the following Conference and spent two years at Haywood Street, Asheville, then to Mount Zion-Huntersville, where he fell in the thick of the fight having on the whole armour of a victorious leader. His body bore the marks of toil and fatigue; but with gleaming eyes and courageous soul he pressed with unfaltering step toward the goal of final triumph.

He was ordained Deacon at Rocky Mount, by Bishop A. W. Wilson, in 1906, and Elder by the same Bishop at Durham in 1908.

In all of his pastorates his work was marked with good success and the people loved him. He was true to all the interests of Christ's Kingdom and the work of the Lord went forward under his ministry. He was uniformly successful in revival work; some of the most noted meetings in his pastorates were at Mangum street where more than a hundred were received on profession of faith. He also had great meetings at Lumberton, Haywood Street, Asheville, and Mount Zion. His brethern of the ministry recognized his efficiency and were always glad to secure his valuable services. His plain, direct gospel preaching strengthened the church and won hundreds to Christ.

During the pastorate of Bro. Hoyle at Lumberton, a splendid church was built, another church organized in East Lumberton, and a house of worship built at St. Paul's; noted material improvements in church and parsonage were made at Greenville, Haywood

Street and at other pastorates. "Without an exception he had his collections in full at every annual Conference."

On December the 8th, 1904 at Dunn, Bro. Hoyle was happily married to Miss Olive Leola Turner, daughter of Mrs. T. V. Smith. In 1915 he was appointed to Mount Zion-Huntersville. He entered upon his work with his usual zeal and earnestness; a strong attachment was formed between him and his people, which ripened into true devotion and love, and perhaps no pastor was ever loved more devoutly by a people, nor loved his people more truly. He spared nothing, not even himself, for them; and they were quick to supply his every need and answer his every call. The parsonage was improved, the salary largely increased voluntarily, the benevolent collections promptly and fully paid, and all work of the church moved forward with more than one hundred souls added to the membership.

Just a few weeks before his death the contract was let for a new church at Huntersville. This work will go on to completion by that faithful, loyal band who love God and the memory of their devoted pastor. The last time he preached at Mount Zion—he held a church conference and plans were then adopted to remodel and improve this church and add twelve (12) Sunday School rooms.

Bro. Hoyle's domestic life was one of marked devotion and tenderness. He was a dutiful son, and held his parents in tender love. One could not be in his own house without being impressed with the thoughtful kindness and love to wife and children manifested in words and action every day and everywhere. He loved the young people and the Boy Scouts were his pets.

REV. EVAN GRANVILLE PUSEY

Was born in Chester county, Pennsylvania, February 17, 1852, and died in his home at Morven, N. C., April 13, 1917. He was stricken with paralysis several years before his decease, and during this time was almost helpless, his good wife attending him with marked devotion.

He experienced an early conversion, and a call to preach came even earlier. He attended the common schools of his day, and spent one year in what is now known as Elon College, N. C.

He was married to Miss Sallie Frances Smithwick of North Carolina, February 9th, 1877.

He was licensed to preach in Moore county N. C. by the Christian Church, November 20, 1883, and the following year was ordained. He was admitted into the North Carolina Conference at Newbern, December 3rd, 1888. With unusual fidelity he served the following charges: Earpsboro Mission, 1889; Wilkesboro, 1890; Sparta, 1891; North Yadkin, 1892; Charlotte Circuit, 1893; Salem, 1894-5; Salisbury Circuit, 1896; East Uwharrie, 1897-98-99; Salem, 1900; China Grove, 1901; Polkton, 1902; Clear Creek, 1903-04-05-06; Fairview, 1907-08; Woodleaf, 1909; Connolly Springs, 1910.

I doubt if a more loyal and uncomplaining Methodist preacher ever lived among us. It was easy for him to believe that God sent him to all his appointments. Next to the power and grace of God in his life the Methodist Church was the biggest thing.

He was one superannuate whose life was a benediction to the whole community. The people of Morven would be delighted to have a dozen supernumary preachers just like him to live among them.

His fine sense of humor made him an acquisition to any social circle and a source of constant cheer around his own hearthstone. His faith was sublime, because of its simplicity.

The writer was frequently in his home and watched him as he approached the gloaming. It was a day without a storm; a sunset without a cloud. The night was not dark, for it was bedecked with ten thousand stars. The large church at Morven where his funeral was held was crowded with friends and loved ones desiring to manifest some token of their appreciation of the good influence his life and character had wrought in their lives.

With Church ritual and Masonic orders he was buried in the Morven cemetery to await the resurrection morning. J. H. West.

WILLIAM LESTER REXFORD

At half past three o'clock on Friday morning, March 9, 1917, the soul of William Lester Rexford took its everlasting flight. His frail pain-racked body then received rest,—that boon for which he had so long sighed. In his last days he was wont to say, "I have everything I need but rest—O, if I could just get rest." Thank God, rest came, and with a beckoning smile he bade farewell to all pain and weariness. After many expressions of appreciation and a most impressive service in Grace Church, Wilmington, we laid his lifeless form to rest beneath a wealth of flowers in the cemetery of the city by the sea.

For more than five years, Brother Rexford battled with a fatal disease, but continued his work until about a year ago. Since giving up his work he has at times entertained some hopes of recovery, but for seventeen weeks preceding his death he lingered on the border-land, suffering untold agony. Too much cannot be said for that faithful wife who, forgetful of self, stood by his bedside administering to his every need. Not only she, but his legion of friends of the city of Wilmington never lost an opportunity to do some little kindness for the one who through his sickness and sincerity had won their hearts. Every material necessity, and above all, love, were given to cheer and bless him in his last hours. He was rich in true friendship which supplied every need at the last.

Brother Rexford was born in Iowa in 1873, but in early childhood moved with his parents to California, where he resided until 1902, when he entered Trinity College to study for the ministry. Upon his graduation in 1906 he immediately entered the pastorate at Market Street (now Trinity) Church Wilmington. Here he served with great acceptability for four years. During his pastorate a Church enterprise was begun, and the Sunday School room was completed.

From Trinity he was transferred to Bladen Street Church in the same city. Here he did a monumental work. A new Church edifice was erected at a cost of several thousand dollars. A larger and more stable membership was secured, and the entire organization strengthened. When his four years were finished at Bladen Street, there was a strong desire upon the part of the people at Trinity for his return, whereupon he again became their pastor.

He was able to serve them, however, only one year. In search of health he transferred to the Western North Carolina Conference in 1914, and was appointed to Hot Springs and Marshall, residing at Marshall. Here he added more than double the number of families to the Methodist Church within a single year. Though feeble, he seemed more determined to succeed than ever before. One day as we walked along the bank of the murmuring French Broad he stopped to rest; while panting for breath his eyes caught the lofty peaks that pierced the clear blue sky, and he exclaimed with a touch of pathetic devotion, "O, that I might tower in my Lord's service like those grand peaks. Why should I be cut off, why hemmed in by my weakness? Well, some day I'll understand." Yes, now he understands.

While a friend to all, Brother Rexford was never a friend for a consideration. He never sought out the affluent in his community, flattering or favoring them in order to receive personal benefit. He loved all alike, showing a real touch of human tenderness in all his bearing.

In his preaching, he was intense, showing something of the poetic quality which enables one to portray the beauty of holiness. He sometimes spoke in figures, but his meaning was clear. So-called "profound" truth had but little attraction for him. He was content with simple, saving truth. What his Lord had said was sufficient for him. In his utterances he never provoked antagonism. He could preach on "Hell" without consigning his congregation to its flames. With positiveness he could reprove the sinner and yet win his affection. He could say great things in a great way.

REV. JOHN CLARK TROY

John Clark Troy was the eldest son of W. C. and L. E. Troy, and was born at Fayetteville, N. C., April 15, 1857. He was educated at the old Horner and Graves Military School, Hillsboro, and at the University of North Carolina. Soon after leaving the University he was admitted to the bar, and practiced law at Fayetteville, Whittier, and Bryson City. In 1885 he was married to Miss Ella Hanner, of Randleman. They had one daughter, Louise, now Mrs. R. M. Garrett of Greenville, N. C. During his early manhood his genial and buoyant spirit made him an easy prey to the sins that beset the young, but God's grace called him back to the plain, straight way taught him by his parents. On Christmas Day, 1887, in the quiet of his little home—holy day and holy place!—he was converted and very soon thereafter was convinced of his call to the Christian ministry. In 1888 he was admitted into the Holston Conference, which then embraced a part of Western North Carolina, and assigned to Murphy Circuit. In 1890 he was sent to Riverside, Asheville, (now Haywood Street) and served this charge until ill health necessitated his retirement from the active ministry in 1894. He never ceased to talk about Riverside—"Riverside, planted by the river of water," to use his own quaint expression. He possessed the heart of a pastor and in serving his Asheville congregation found the pastor's joy—such joy as only those can know who lead the Good Shepherd's flock by waters still and into pastures green. It is indeed befitting that his Memoir should be read amid these scenes of his great joy. After retiring from the active ministry he made his home at Jonesboro, N. C. His wife died in 1898. He was married the second time, March 18, 1900, to Miss Lula Earnhardt. In 1901 he moved to Durham, and until the time of his death, February 14, 1917, Durham was his home. His second wife and two sons, John Clark and Ballard Earnhardt, survive him.

As worldly measurements go the life of John C. Troy was uneventful; but those who knew the man and knew the odds against which he struggled can but honor him for his quiet and patient heroism. He never sheathed his sword until death claimed him. For more than twenty years he was the victim of an incurable malady of the heart. Death stared him in the face every day, but he was not afraid and never ceased his work. He went every day about his tasks as though he had as good a chance at life as any other man. He is best known through his contributions to the state press under the nom de plume, "Trojan." His articles were full of wit and cheer and homely philosophy and faith in God and man. His career was not as he had planned it, but when on the 14th of February last the "Trojan" finished up his accounts and laid aside his books and pen and bade his friends farewell he had learned life's lessons well—to live uprightly, to fight despite the handicap, to trust in God and wait for his good time.

Outside the teachings of the Scriptures there is no stronger assurance of immortality than a life like this. He dreamed so much, he accomplished so little; his restless spirit yearned for wider fields of service, his diseased body held it in captivity. So incomplete seems his life—so full of possibilities unrealized. God is not so unjust as to create within us desires for heights we cannot reach only to let our aspirations die. "For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved we have a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens." In a larger sphere where the spirit unfettered can work at its rightful tasks the "Trojan" has gone.

REV. JAMES HARVEY WEAVER, D. D.

James Harvey Weaver was born in Ashe County, North Carolinian, May 24, 1849. He was the son of Rev. Hiram Weaver, a local Methodist minister. Dr. Weaver said of his father that "he was a thoroughly good man" and of his mother that "she was a good Christian woman." This testimony so modestly expressed by him was altogether true.

James Harvey attended school only two or three months each winter for a period of years, but despite these meagre opportunities, "he formed," as he said, "the habit of studying." This habit was confirmed by three or four years' attendance at an excellent academy and by several years of teaching.

While he was both student and assistant teacher at Jefferson Academy in Ashe County he was licensed to preach. He had been a communicant of the church from his ninth year. Citizens of his native county bear testimony to his exemplary youth and young manhood.

In 1878, Bishop Doggett appointed him to fill the vacancy in the pastorate of the Jefferson circuit which had occurred between Conferences. That fall James H. Weaver was admitted on trial into the Holston Conference at Knoxville, Tenn. He was returned again and again until the quadrennium on his native circuit was complete. This unusual procedure is confirmation of the high esteem of the people among whom he had been reared.

On December 24, 1872, he was married to Miss Jennie Burkett, a girl who in loveliness of form and character was worthy to be his life companion.

Dr. Weaver's second and third appointments, the Independence in Virginia and the Washington in East Tennessee, were like his first, large circuits.

In 1884 at the end of his sixth year in the itinerancy, at the Conference in Bristol, Bishop Keener appointed Dr. Weaver presiding elder of the Franklin District. This was a signal mark of approval of his worthiness and efficiency.

After four years on the Franklin, he traveled one year the Jonesboro District. Then Bishop Wilson appointed him to the Asheville District.

While on the Asheville District, the Western North Carolina Conference was formed by the General Conference of 1890. His lot was cast with us. He served the Asheville District four years.

In 1893 he was appointed Presiding Elder of the Greensboro District. Concerning this appointment he wrote, "I have always had better appointments than I deserved." The goodness of God humbled him. He said further, "I am now resolved to be more faithful to my Master than ever before."

After one year on the district, he was four years pastor of the West Market Street Church. Several hundred were added to the membership and the magnificent new church, projected by his predecessor, was brought to completion.

During his one year at our First Church, Salisbury, over a hundred members were added.

Next in Central Church, Asheville, he crystalized the sentiment for a new church building.

He served the Shelby District in 1902-3. The four succeeding years the Statesville District had the benefit of his inspiring leadership.

During a pastorate of three years at Hickory, large congregations attended his church and the work prospered.

In 1910, he began his great quadrennium in Central church, Monroe. Here, in the strict discharge of ministerial functions, he ran counter to the prejudices of some persons, but so great were the character and magnanimity of the man that hearts could not long hold out against him. After the incident, in which he performed his duty, he was returned the succeeding years, and, loving all, was loved in return.

While in Monroe the precious wife, after much suffering in the latter years died. Dr. Weaver wrote in a book of notes, "And now she who was my stay and comfort has been taken out of my life, and I am left in my desolate home with no voice to break its silence, or hand to touch, or smile to welcome me when I come in at the evening time." Her presence among the glorified made his welcome sweeter to our Father's house.

Dr. Weaver's last charge was the Greensboro District. That excellency which had marked his labors in every hand, on the large circuit, the mountain or the metropolitan District, and in the city church, characterized him here. No district had so clean a sheet at the last Conference as the Greensboro.

Dr. Weaver had a master's grasp upon his work and a hero's grip upon his men. He was a man of such strength and symmetry of character that men's thoughts of him easily ran to God. He was loved by little children and by strong men. He was revered by his comrades in the Conference as father, friend, exemplar, guide.

He was a model preacher, simple, direct, scriptural, often eloquent, and always attractive and edifying. He was profound, but not abstruse; practical and appealing. Above all, in his very tones, in the glance of his eye, in his Christ-like countenance, in his magnificent bearing, in the subject matter of his conversation, Jesus the Saviour of men was magnified.

The high esteem in which he was held by his brethren is attested by the fact that he was elected a delegate to the General Conference seven successive times, leading his delegation three or four times.

Dr. Weaver had great satisfaction in the fact that he was succeeded in the ministry and work of the church by his only child, Dr. Charles C. Weaver, President of Emory and Henry College, Virginia. He loved intensely this only child, his grandchildren, his brother and sisters, who survive, but his affections were so broad and deep that they embraced us all, and to hundreds he was "Father Weaver."

His death came as a great shock to our entire Conference. On Wednesday evening, February 21, 1917, after a day of routine work in his study, he participated in the mid-week prayer service in West Market Street Church.

The hymns that evening were the old hymns about heaven. The prayer meeting theme was, "Jesus, the way to Heaven." Dr. Weaver joined in singing all the hymns. The last one was:

How happy every child of grace,
Who knows his sins forgiven!
"This earth, he cries, 'is not my place,
I seek my place in heaven."

Then Dr. Weaver led the closing prayer, which was full of the confidence of a glorious immortality, and with his hands lifted over us, pronounced the benediction. He walked to the public square and while waiting there for the street car which should convey him to his parsonage, sank unconscious to the pavement, and in a moment was gone. The angels, who surely were hovering about us in the prayer meeting, gave him escort to the skies.

A service in appreciation of the great worth of our departed brother was held in West Market Street Church on Friday at 11 a. m. participated in by Revs. E. L. Bain, S. B. Turrentine, G. T. Rowe, and others. Many preachers and laymen of the Conference and an immense congregation of Greensboro people were present.

The body of Dr. Weaver was taken to Emory, Virginia, where on Saturday at 11 o'clock a funeral service was conducted in which several ministers of the Holston Conference, took part. His remains were interred in Holston Cemetery, and his and Mrs. Weaver's graves were covered with flowers.

It was the character of this man which constituted his greatness. He amassed no fortune with which to purchase fame; he made no scientific discovery by which his name might be perpetuated; he accomplished no military or political feat by which to be remembered; he organized no movement whose adherents would venerate him as founder; he made no contributions to literature which would convey his name to a succeeding generation; but as has been said of another who died on the field of duty, so may it be said of our departed friend:

"When a star is quenched on high,
For ages will its light
Still travel downward from the sky,
Shine on our mortal sight.
So when a good man dies,
For years beyond our ken,
The light he leaves behind him lies
Upon the path of men." E. L. Bain

PREACHERS WIVES WHO HAVE DIED THIS YEAR

MRS. RUTH BLAIR ADER, was born in Randolph County, September 5, 1868, the only daughter of B. F. and Rachal A. Blair. Her parents were members of the Friends' Church and in her childhood she joined that church. When she was married to Rev. O. P. Ader she entered at once sympathetically into his plans and purposes, joined the Methodist Church and for twenty years shared his joys and trials as a true wife and Christian. For many years her health was feeble and for several months before her departure her suffering was protracted but she bore it all in patience and faith.

She passed away in great peace June 7, 1917. Her life was beautiful, her service and sacrifice inestimable and she leaves to her husband and children the happy heritage of the memory of a loyal wife and loving mother.

MRS. EMILY HEALAN ENGLAND, (born in Lenoir, N. C. in 1852) daughter of the late Rev. J. L. Healan, joined the Methodist Church in childhood, was educated at Davenport College, married to the late Rev. J. F. England in 1877, and died suddenly on October 2, 1917 when an automobile in which she was riding overturned and crushed out her life. She possessed superior native intellect which was cultivated by education and divine grace. Her refinement of mind and heart made her influential in every circle in which she moved.

In childhood she learned to love the Lord and through all the days of her pilgrimage she followed close to the Master.

When she became the wife of an itinerant preacher she recognized the opportunities for service which lay before her and with joy she labored with her husband in every charge he served and all his people loved her.

Though the end came suddenly she was ready to give a good report. Truly, "She hath done what she could."

MRS. ELLEN SHERRILL HONEYCUTT, wife of Rev. W. V. Honeycutt, was for thirty years a help meet indeed to her husband. Twenty seven of these years were spent with him in his work as the wife of an itinerant preacher and she was at all times an inspiration and an encouragement to him in his arduous labors.

She died at the Granite Falls parsonage, January 10, 1917, after many months of severe suffering which she bore with uncomplaining patience until she fell asleep.

MRS. MARY THOMPSON JOHNSON, wife of Rev. D. C. Johnson of the North Carolina Conference, was born in Onslow County, N. C., October 4, 1840 and died at Trinity, N. C. January 3, 1917.

She was a devout and loyal Christian from youth to old age. She loved the Church and was ever making sacrifices for the extension of the Kingdom. In her latter days she suffered intensely but when the end came she passed beyond in full hope of life eternal.

MRS. LOUISA A. MALLONEE, wife of the late Rev. W. G. Mallonee was born in Macon County, N. C. August 26, 1853. Was married July 2, 1890. She became a Christian in childhood and kept the faith with increasing fullness until her course was finished in triumph when she died at Black Mountain, December 13, 1916. Her home life was beautiful. She has received her crown and entered into rest.

MRS. EMMA S. WELLONS, wife of Rev. R. F. Wellons, was born in Davie County, N. C., September 29, 1882, married to Rev. R. F. Wellons February 6, 1907. In early life she professed faith in Christ, joined the Methodist Church, was a faithful member and died in triumph at Miller's Creek, Wilkes County, September 25, 1917.
